

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
IN AND FOR UTAH COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH.

Provo Reservoir Company, a corporation, Plaintiff,

VS.

Provo City, et al; Esthma
Tanner, and Caleb Tanner,
George Tanner as Agents,
Servants and Employees of Esthma Tanner, Defendants.

Answer of George Tanner.

Comes now George Tanner and answering the petition of J.M.
Bonny filed herein, admits denies and alleges as follows:

1. Not having sufficient information on which to form a belief he denies each, any and all of the allegations of the said petition, generally and specifically, except as hereinafter stated;
2. He admits that on the specific dates stated in the said petition of the said J.M. Bonny he was performing some labor in irrigating lands of Esthma Tanner, but that alleges he had no direction from her in the premises; that on the said dates he turned some water on the said lands from Spring Creek and made certain measurements of water in ditches on the said lands, all of which was done by him under the direction of Caleb Tanner, his father, and that except as directed by his father he did nothing in the premises; that he has irrigated the said farm lands of Esthma Tanner under a schedule or ticket which he believes to have been made by one T.F. Wentz;
3. Alleges that he was not a party to civil action 2888 in the above entitled Court and that he has at all times been without any notice or knowledge of such action or any decree rendered by the Court therein, and that he is without knowledge of any of the provisions of any judgment or decree therein rendered.

Wherefore he prays that the said J.M. Bonny take nothing by his petition herein filed; that the same be dismissed as to him and that he have judgment for any costs by him herein expended.
